

Ram Dhulipala, an electrical engineer and an IIM Calcutta alumnus, leads the Digital Agriculture theme at ICRISAT. After obtaining his engineering degree from Government Engineering College in Hyderabad in 2004, he worked as a software engineer in Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) from 2004 to 2010. In TCS, he worked primarily in the telecom domain for customers like Ericsson, British Telecom and was into technologies like VOIP, OSI stack and SIP programming. He also has rich experience in architecting solutions in Enterprise IT environments. After obtaining MBA from IIM Calcutta in 2011, he worked in executive positions in the corporate sector in the areas of Finance, Corporate Strategy, Program Management and M&A across diverse sectors. Ram Dhulipala is a strong believer in partnerships and has good experience at managing complex projects that bring together people/teams with diverse skills and backgrounds.