

Shehzad Lokhandwalla
CTO and Co-Founder
OKO

Shehzad comes from a background in field information services. Before joining OKO as CTO and co-founder, Shehzad spent 3 years working in international development; he previously worked for UN OCHA and conducted research on a mobile first strategy in the field, and most recently he worked for One Acre Fund where he developed mobile tools used to enroll small holder farmers into their micro-loan program.

Shehzad is interested in mobile solutions for scaling products/services to rural customers.
