

SUBHADEEP SANYAL - BIO

Subhadeep Sanyal is a Principal at Omnivore.

He has been responsible for sourcing deals, due diligence and leading investment in multiple startups; across agricultural mechanization, supply chain technologies, digital agriculture, rural marketplaces and sustainable inputs amongst other subsectors.

Over the last 7.5 years, Subhadeep has travelled across India, evaluating hundreds of companies in the agriculture & food sector for investment. He has also travelled extensively to USA and Israel to get insights on the global startup ecosystem in these sectors.

He is a regular speaker on topics around ag-tech and food, start-ups and their investment potential at conferences organized by industry associations like CII, FICCI, ASSOCHAM, NASSCOM and TiE. He is also well networked and has had regular interactions with most of the eminent educational institutes including – IIM Ahmedabad, IIM Lucknow and multiple IIT's along with most accelerators and incubators for ag/food across the country.

He is currently on the board of five Omnivore investee companies and works closely with six portfolio companies, on a variety of issues ranging from hiring, business development, strategy, fund raising and general scale up related challenges.

Before joining Omnivore, Subhadeep had interned with Mahindra & Mahindra (Farm & Auto Sector), working on their entry into the micro-irrigation space.

Subhadeep earned a B.Sc. (Honors) in Agricultural Science from Haryana Agricultural University, where he was the batch topper and a Post Graduate Diploma in Agribusiness Management from IIM-Ahmedabad.
